JCW Education is Available

The education environment for Job Center of Wisconsin (JCW) is available. To get a sneak peak of the Release 2 enhancements and try them out, please go to <https://education.jobcenterofwisconsin.com>

If you already have a job seeker account (username and password) in JCW production (the 'real' site), you can use it in JCW education too.

If you do not already have an account and want to create one so you can explore the JCW education site, please create the account at <https://education.jobcenterofwisconsin.com> Be sure to use your own name and your own email address when creating an account and registration.

The first time you use the education environment you will need to create a Title 3 registration if you want to create a résumé or work application. The résumé/work application will be in the education database, and will not affect production.

To explore the Job Center of Wisconsin as an employer, choose a username/password from the Employer Logins & Passwords for JCW Education list.

The JCW Job Seeker Help Text and the JCW Employer Help Text are attached. These are not training documents, nor should they be printed and given to job seekers, employers, or other customers. The 'Need help?' links throughout the Job Center of Wisconsin site provide customers with the information.

When you are in the education environment and click on pages such as 'Contact Us', you go to the production (real) version of the page. Be sure to use the  button on your browser to return to the education environment. Otherwise, you will be "playing around" in production, which you should not do. Real job seekers' or real employers' data could be affected.

Reminder for all staff

For the purposes of:

- educating yourself about how the system works,
- conducting workshops,
- demoing the Job Center of Wisconsin website,
- or other, similar activities, you should use the education environment <https://education.jobcenterofwisconsin.com>, not the production (real) website. Otherwise, real job seekers' or real employers' data could be affected.

If you have any questions, please send an email to JobCenterofWisconsin@dwd.wisconsin.gov
